

Banquets & Private Affairs

Thank you for considering the Inn at Sugar Hill for your special occasion. You can be confident that the same attention to detail, constantly high quality of food and professional service that has earned the Inn its fine reputation spanning over three decades will insure you and your guests a most memorable affair. Our goal is to exceed your expectations with regards to what a private affair at a country inn should be.

Accommodations

The perfect family gathering or group social awaits you and your guests in one of our private dining rooms. The parlor dining room, boasting twin fireplaces and Victorian draperies, can accommodate a maximum of 34 guests. This private room is the perfect setting for an intimate wedding, rehearsal dinner, business dinner or shower. For larger affairs our main dining room with adjoining enclosed porch can accommodate up to 44 guests. For the ultimate private affair, with a minimum of 50 guests and a maximum of 80 guests, the entire restaurant and garden café area is available on Saturdays from 12:00 PM until 4:00 PM. From May to September, our tented Dockside Grill is available for private events accommodating up to 110 guests. For lasting memories of your private affair, the Inn at Sugar Hill offers perfect photo opportunities on our professionally maintained grounds, which offer a commanding river view, as well as the charming Victorian detail of our quaint, romantic Inn.

Menu Planning

The menus that follow have been created by our staff using not only their creative talents but also over 30 years experience in providing professionally yet personally executed private affairs at the Inn. The seating layouts strive to take advantage of the Inn's unique charm, water views and beautiful grounds. Custom menus are available, please ask.
